Deaf Members Share about Deaf Ministry

Deaf members of the Tabernacle Church in Portland, Oregon decided to try something they have never tried before. They decided to help hearing Adventists in their area learn about Deaf ministry. They set up a booth for Three Angels Deaf Ministries at the Gladstone Camp Meeting on July 18-22. The camp meeting is held on the Oregon Conference Office property on the south edge of the city of Portland. This is a large camp meeting in a large conference.

They were not sure if the booth would be a success or if anyone would be interested. Also, all of the booth workers were Deaf and they wondered if communication might be a problem. But many hearing people stopped by the booth and showed great interest in meeting the Deaf. Materials were quickly given away, faster than expected!

The hearing and Deaf worked together nicely to communicate well; many notes were written and many gestures were used.

The Deaf members want to do this again as a way to help hearing people to know more about Deaf ministry.

As a note, the Oregon Conference hired two professional ASL interpreters (Adventists) for the camp meeting for the weekend.

Speaker's Dialogue: Are You Faithfully Betrothed to Jesus?

I was humbled when Terese Rognmo, now Huckle, asked me to officiate their wedding on August 19. I have officiated several weddings and have done much research so that I would give important spiritual lessons to the couples for a long, happy marriage. I have learned much. The relationship between the groom and the bride is an important picture of our relationship with Jesus Christ who is the Groom. Who are the brides? Us.

Can our heavenly marriage fail? Yes, but it is not the fault of the Groom. It is us. We find words about our being promised in marriage to Jesus in the Bible. Let us read a few.

"I am jealous over you with a jealousy that comes from God. I promised to give you to Christ, as your only husband. I want to give you as his pure bride" (2 Corinthians 11:2, NCV). God uses marriage as an example of our spiritual relationship with God. God wants us to understand His message so we are saved from the deceptions and sins we face everyday.

When God created Adam and Eve, He said that two become one. The couple has the same love for each other, the same goals, the same loyalty and faithfulness to each other and the same love for the Creator God who keeps them together. Jesus said, "My Father and I are one" (John 10:30). He meant that His Father and He are one in agreement and goal for saving human beings. They work together in different roles. It is the same with married couples who work together in harmony and love.

In the parable of ten virgins (Matthew 25:1-11) Jesus shows the danger of being careless and not staying faithful to God. The five foolish virgins did not keep a very close relationship with Jesus Christ. But the wise virgins were filled with the Holy Spirit because they had a living relationship with the Groom.

Married couples are like the ten virgins. Many of them are like the foolish virgins. For example, there are many marriage couples who "do not know" each other because of their lack of love and distractions by other things. Husbands lose their love for their wives for some reason and become attracted to other women. Adultery can come in when their relationship to each other is poor. They may seem to be together but inside their hearts they are far apart.

Are we like them? Are we like the foolish virgins? I pray that we are not. We need to refresh our love for Jesus Christ daily.

You have heard stories about an honest husband who loves his wife but she does not love him and went after another man. In Old Testament times God called His people who worshiped idols adulterers. Still today we can lose interest in staying in a relationship with God. We can become more interested in worldly things than in God. We can leave the Groom by following our sinful desires and worldly ways.

"For the land is full of adulterers; for the land mourns because of the curse. The pleasant places of the wilderness have dried up. And their course is evil and their might is not right" (Jeremiah 23:10, NKJV).

"I will do these things to you because you have gone whoring after the nations, because you have polluted yourself with their idols" (Ezekiel 23:30).

Are we spiritual adulterers? We can be, even if we attend church faithfully, if our hearts are not with God. "The Lord says: 'These people worship me with their mouths, and honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me'" (Isaiah 29:13, NCV).

Paul gave a good example of Christ's love for the church. "Husbands, love your wives as Christ loved the church and gave himself for it to make it belong to God. Christ used the word to make the church clean by washing it with water. He died so that he could give the church to himself like a bride in all her beauty. He died so that the church could be pure and without fault, with no evil or sin or any other wrong thing in it. In the same way, husbands should love their wives as they love their own bodies. The man who loves his wife loves himself." (Ephesians 5:25-28, NCV).

Because of Christ's sacrifice for His church we should completely submit our lives to Him—"Wives, follow the lead of your own husbands as you follow the Lord. The husband is the head of the wife, just as

Booth Ministry Continues

DeafNation Expo did not happen anywhere this year. Also DeafUnited Expo cancelled their expos after many problems earlier in the year. But several Deaf events happen across the country and we can still have a booth ministry.

NEW JERSEY

New Jersey Deaf Awareness Week, Inc. (NJ DAW) hosted their 14th biennial Deaf Fest 2017 on September 24, 2017. It was held in the country near East Brunswick, NJ. David Trexler and Jason Kimbrough with his daughter Jade worked our booth at this Deaf Fest. It was held outdoors and the weather was warm. We do not have the official estimate of how big the crowd was. But David Trexler believes that there were about 2,000 people.

"It was the first expo where we gave away the new DVD—Last Day Events," David tells us. "We had good visitors coming to our booth and they gladly took our bags. We were thrilled to meet two Deaf Adventists who were glad to see our booth."

FLORIDA

On the weekend of September 30, David and Francisca Trexler flew to Florida just three weeks after it was battered by Hurricane Irma. The city of Lakeland where the expo was located was not hit as hard as in other places. They saw broken palm leaves and branches by the road curbs for pick up.

Christ is the head of the church. The church is Christ's body. He is its Savior. The church follows the lead of Christ. In the same way, wives should follow the lead of their husbands in everything" (Ephesians 5:22-24, NIRV). It is always safe to follow Him because He is the Creator who knows what is best for us.

If we stay faithful to God until the end we shall have the great marriage supper with Jesus Christ. We do not want to be found guilty as spiritual adulterers. We want to be pure as the bride dressed in white. White clothes are a symbol of God's grace of forgiveness, Christ's righteousness, and our pure faith in God. Pray always that you will stay faithful to the One who died for us.

This man is inviting his hearing friend to take one of our bags. He encouraged many Deaf friends to enroll in our Deaf Bible School.

The organization ProjectDEAF sponsored their first expo called "It's a Deaf Thing" in this area. More than 1,200 visitors came and enjoyed it. David said, "We were thrilled to meet a Deaf man who was a Deaf Bible school student. He told many friends about our Bible school. We gained many students through this man. Also, a good number of visitors came to our booth. One man said, 'I know you!' I did not recognize him but he recognized me and he spelled my name correctly. He knew me at Gallaudet University 48 years ago. I was surprised at his good memory. We had a good visit before he moved on to other booths."

Another expo is planned for the same location next year. We look forward to it.

Western Deaf Camp Meeting Celebrates 40 Years

The Western Deaf Camp Meeting's 40th year anniversary was held July 9-16 at Milo Adventist Academy in Oregon. This meeting was almost historic with a large attendance of 143 people. Only one other year had more people. People came from all over the USA such as Iowa, Virginia, Maryland, Arkansas, Texas, Minnesota, and Pennsylvania.

The theme was "The 1888 Message" with main speakers Alan Meis and Paul Kelly. Other speakers were David Trexler, George Belser, and Esther Doss. Also, Sheelah Kimbrough led a cooking class and an active children's class kept the children busy all day every day.

On Sabbath evening, a program with skits was held. These skits focused on the theme of drawing close to Jesus and how to serve Him.

The traditional game of volleyball was played in the gym. The score was kept, but the focus was not on winning but just to play and have a great time.

A large group of nearly seventy people went to raft on the Rogue River. They raced, had water battles, or just enjoyed resting and seeing the natural sights.

As always, the Lord's Supper was on Friday evening to welcome the Sabbath. This year, the elders were not alone on the platform. Twelve men who were dressed like Jesus' disciples joined them. Each one introduced themselves and often argued at the table. While David Trexler gave the message, he often spoke directly to the disciples. Once, he asked them if they would be willing to give up everything for Jesus. Judas (played by Chuck McGehee) quickly tossed his money bag away. This question made everyone think. After the service, many shared their joyful testimonies and stories of miracles.

The best part of camp meeting each year is the baptism. Five people were baptized or rebaptized: David Lopez (NM), Julia Sutton (WA), Valerie Wendel-

Filkins (IA), Beth Dobson (VA), and Stephen Huckle (WA).

Special recognition was given to Sandra Alejo by the Deaf members of the Tabernacle church in Portland, Oregon. Sandra is a very active Deaf member of that church. She serves in many ways including as treasurer and has been a huge part of planning and working at this camp meeting for years.

This camp meeting was started by Deaf ministry leaders who wanted a place for Adventist Deaf members to meet and experience spiritual growth. Committed Deaf people kept this going for forty years. Many lives have been changed because of this yearly meeting. In fact, this was the first Deaf camp meeting. Other camp meetings have sprung up across North America and around the world, copying the model of this one. God has blessed indeed.

The Deaf campers at this meeting decided that they do not want to celebrate any more anniversaries. Rather, they hope to celebrate God's mercy and grace together in heaven with ears that hear Jesus' voice and a voice that will sing His praises for eternity.

Chuck McGehee Given Special Recognition

Three Angels Deaf Ministries gave Chuck McGehee a large surprise during the Western Deaf Camp Meeting. He was given a plaque to show our recognition of his dedicated service to Deaf ministry for many years. He has been a key leader in Deaf ministry in Oregon. He has served in many ways including as an elder and he has provided leadership for several Deaf groups in the Northwest. He also directed the Western Deaf Camp Meeting for a number of years. Plus, he is a board member of 3ADM. We recognize his past and continuing contribution to Deaf ministry. He has made a significant difference in Deaf ministry not only in the Northwest, but all across North America.

Southern Deaf Camp Meeting

The 12th Annual Southern Deaf Fellowship Camp Meeting was held August 9-13 at the Cohutta Springs Conference Center in Crandall, Georgia. Eighty-eight people came from several states for this spiritual meeting.

Alan Meis was the main speaker for the camp meeting. He explained what the 1888 message was, how the church reacted to it at that time, and what happened because of their actions. He encouraged the campers to embrace this message themselves as they look longingly for the Second Coming. Esther Doss also gave two presentations which prompted some heart searching and the meaningful Lord's Supper was held on Friday evening. On Sabbath afternoon, Leonardo Segó, a 15-year-old CODA, committed his life to Jesus through baptism.

While the adults held their meetings, two separate classes for children and teens were held. Frequent bursts of laughter came from the children's class as they went through "Watch Dog Training" and learned to watch what they say. The teens were seen playing Bible games and other activities.

Other SDF Area News

Pastor Jeff Jordan and Darwin Ayscue teach ASL courses at Southern Adventist University. Southern Deaf Fellowship (based in McDonald, TN) partnered with SODA (Students of Deaf Awareness) on the university campus by providing a Deaf Picnic event at the nearby park Saturday evening on October 7. The Deaf community was invited to socialize and eat together. About 50 Deaf and hearing people attended.

Mario Romero is one of the Deaf elders of the Southern Deaf Fellowship. He also wrote a book Silently Guided which is an excellent story of his life. If you have not read it yet, consider ordering a copy from us. He had yet another surgery on October 16 to remove two tumors in his brain. The tumors were causing seizures and his arms and legs were not working as before. The surgery was very risky but it was a success! He was walking the next day and his arms and legs are working as they used to. Two days after his surgery, Mario went home!

Campers were able to canoe, ride a pontoon boat, ride the torpedo or jump on the blob in the lake. Another option was to swim in the refreshing waters of the pool. A couple of Christian films were shown for those who were less adventurous. Also, free massages were given as a special treat.

Next year will be a full camp meeting because 7th Day Interpreters and Deaf Young Adults for Christ will be joining them. May God bless all of the plans that are being made for next year.

Very Big Day in Portland

July 8th was a special Sabbath for the Deaf group meeting at the Tabernacle church in Portland, Oregon. Several Deaf visitors were in the area as they were on their way to the annual Western Deaf Camp Meeting at Milo Adventist Academy which began the next day. The Deaf at Tabernacle have two options for Sabbath School: the regular and beginners classes both taught by Deaf members. David Trexler was the guest speaker for worship services. After a delicious fellowship meal and a quick group photo, an afternoon seminar was given by Francisca Trexler. More than fifty-five people were present for Sabbath services.

The Deaf group in the Portland, Oregon area have met at the Tabernacle Church 2009. In fact, this is the largest group of Deaf Adventists that meet in all of North America. It is a very active group with its own worship services in the youth chapel and also put on several events including an annual Deaf camp meeting.

Deaf Christian Women's Ministry

Twelve ladies were blessed during the annual Deaf Christian Women's Ministry Retreat at Camp Tilikum in Newberg, Oregon on October 1-5. This camp was a very beautiful place. It provided the women with real relaxation. The facilities were really nice with everything on one floor and everything was easily accessible. Margie English was the guest speaker and spoke on Faith, Hope, and Love. She shared about each one in depth. Then she expanded the study to give ideas as to what this looks like in your relationship with others. Each evening they put to practice what they learned by praying with each other one-on-one and then together as a whole group. They look forward to retreat again in the fall of next year.

Wedding Brings A Big Weekend in Portland Area

The weekend of August 19 was a busy one for the Deaf group in the Portland, Oregon area. Terese (Rognmo) and Stephen Huckle's wedding was on August 20th in Vancouver, WA. The next day on Monday was also memorable because of the Eclipse Day and many were between Salem and Portland to see it.

But first, on Sabbath, David Trexler was the guest speaker for worship service for the Deaf group at the Tabernacle SDA Church in Portland, Oregon. His sermon pointed to the wedding as he spoke about the Ten Virgins, one of the parables Jesus told. A large number of people were at worship service as many were in the area for both the eclipse and the wedding. In the afternoon, the ladies met for a women's Bible study which was led by Julia Sutton. They had a lively discussion on the topic of death and heaven.

The next day was the big wedding day. A large number of Deaf people came for the very special event in Vancouver, Washington. David Trexler officiated the wedding. Their wedding was shown live on Facebook for those who could not make it. How appropriate as Facebook was what brought them together.

Terese (Rognmo) has been an Adventist member for many years, first joining the church in Canada.

She saw a Deaf single's group on Facebook. She decided to send a request to join. Stephen was the administrator of that group and accepted her request. They became friends as they chatted on Facebook. They began to court and Stephen learned about her love for the Lord. He got to know God through her faith in Him and was recently baptized, joining God's family. Terese and Stephen courted for two years and then made their commitment in life together through marriage.

In Memory Kelly Palmer

Kelly E. Palmer, 52, of Iowa City passed away Monday, September 18th, 2017. After a long fight she succumbed to cancer while staying at The Bird House Hospice in Iowa City, Iowa. She was born on December 7th, 1964 in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. She was the only Deaf person in her family. She attended the Cedar Rapids Garfield School and eventually attended a deaf school. She graduated from the Iowa School for the Deaf in Council Bluffs, Iowa on May 7, 1983.

Her hobbies were reading and studying the Bible and other books about Jesus Christ. She was a member of the SDA Church.

She worked at the University of Iowa and attended it as a student at the same time. She wanted to become a psychologist or sociologist. However, she could not finish as she had limited money.

Survivors include her only daughter, Amanda Palmer, a precious grandson, Russell, her father, Allen and her brothers, Steve and Scott. She was preceded in death by her Mother, Patrecia Palmer.

The service was held at Iowa City Seventh-day Adventist Church at 4 PM on September 29, 2017.

She will indeed be missed.

In Memory Edith Hotchkiss

Edith (Edie) Lynne Hotchkiss, 53, a native and former resident of Poughkeepsie died suddenly and peacefully on October 8, 2017 in Lancaster, NY.

Edie was born on September 18, 1964 in Poughkeepsie, NY to Mary Elizabeth Barker Hotchkiss and the late George L. Hotchkiss. She was a graduate of Arlington High School, Rochester Institute of Technology (RIT) National Technical Institute for the Deaf (NTID) and Gallaudet University. Edie was passionate about equal access and opportunities for the Deaf and worked as a sign language instructor. She loved God and worshipped at New Hackensack Reformed Church in Wappingers Falls, Beacon Light Tabernacle SDA Church in Wappingers Falls and the Buffalo Suburban SDA Church in Lancaster, NY where a memorial service was held October 16th.

Edie loved Bible study, sign language, FaceTime video chats, gatherings with friends and family, her pets, bike riding, basketball, golfing, bowling, skiing, the outdoors, midnight-hour road trips, door-step surprises, secrets, puzzles, lecturing, sneaking sweets, the spotlight, animated responses, making people laugh and/or making people furious. She hated admitting she was wrong, being on-time, doing laundry and talking about her health. She had a huge heart with a passion for life and an insatiable desire to feel free and be mobile and independent. Her enduring vibrant smile and the twinkle in her eyes will be missed every day but her bright light will never be extinguished. May she rest in peace.

In addition to her mother, she is survived by her siblings, Karen, Bruce, and Gordon, by eight nephews and nieces and her beloved cat Bootsie.

We will miss her. We look forward to seeing both Edie and Kelly on resurrection morning when Jesus comes again.

50 Year Anniversary

George and Arlene Belser celebrated their 50th year anniversary on August 6th. Many friends helped celebrate this very special day! George and Arlene both went to Gallaudet University where they met. They worked for many years at the Washington School for the Deaf in Vancouver, WA. Sometime after they retired, they were snowbirds and lived in Mesa, Arizona during the winter months. Now they are living in Vancouver, Washington. Thank you for your witness. Your commitment to each other has been a living testimony to many others.
