I Remember Neil Davidson

When I heard the sad news of the passing of our good friend, Neil Davidson, I was sad, but I was hopeful because I knew that he was a true Christian warrior who stayed faithful to the Lord until the end. I have a lot of good memories of Neil and Lillian. Francisca and I missed him since he sometimes called us for a chat and news to share. He always ended the call with "May God bless you twosome." We knew that he really loved us very much. That really inspired us of his genuine love for his brothers and sisters in Christ. He also loved other Deaf people whom he had contacted for many years. He had the habit of asking them important questions about the Bible and Jesus Christ. His life had touched many Deaf people in San Diego area since he was young. "Then I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, 'Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.' 'Yes,' says the Spirit, 'that they may rest from their labors, for their works follow them'" (Revelation 14:13, MEV).

I informed Paul and LeeAnn Davidson that we would attend the Celebration of Life to pay our last respects to Neil. And, I offered to assist them. 3ADM has recognized him as an important Deaf person who became the first pioneering full-time Deaf pastor for the Deaf in the United States in 1960. Then I was asked by LeeAnn if I would be willing to give a homily (sermon). I was honored to do it in remembrance of Neil. Why is it very important for us to remember him?

It began in 1969 when I was a student at Gallaudet College (now university). And, I was just baptized into the Seventh-day Adventist Church in January. During the break from college I was at home in California, and on a beautiful Sabbath morning I was preparing to attend an SDA church in Camarillo where I lived. It is about an hour's drive from Los Angeles. My mom informed me that a Deaf person was at the door. I was puzzled. There I met a Deaf man whom I had never met before. He introduced himself to me as Floyd Vance from Newbury Park which is about 10 miles east of Camarillo. He was about 70 years old. When he asked me if I were David I was puzzled even more. How in the world did he know my name since I had never met him before! He smiled and explained to me that he was asked by a pastor (Elder John Issler, a good friend of Neil and Lillian Davidson) to meet me at my home to invite me to attend the White Memorial SDA Church in LA. I was surprised! I didn't know who was that pastor, but I knew Elder Lyle Cornforth and Elder Alfred Griffith in the D.C. area. Either of them might have contacted Elder Issler about me. Floyd kindly asked me if I was interested in joining him going to the church to meet and worship with a Deaf group. Of course, I was thrilled to go to meet other Deaf Adventists.

It was my first time to attend the White Memorial SDA Church where many Deaf Adventists had attended every Sabbath. I was kindly welcomed by them and Elder Issler, who was pastoring to the Deaf group. However, it is not clear

Speaker's Dialogue: The Priceless Gift from Heaven

God loves surprise. Think of it. Adam and Eve just sinned and knew that they would have to die and they were afraid of God who was going to visit them at the usual time. They might think that God was going to punish them instantly when He meet them. No hope. They never experienced guilt and fear before. No way out of the punishment of death! Darkness surrounded them because they lost the glory that faded away after they ate the forbidden fruits. Also, they didn't know about what the Father and the Son had agreed to save the world many years before the creation of this world. Let's take a look at Genesis of the conversation between the Lord God and the couple, now sinners.

"I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring; he will bruise your head, and you will bruise his heel" (3:15). This is the gospel for them. This is the Messianic promise.

When He met them God asked them about their nakedness but He received the blame game from the couple. Obviously, they didn't want to die so they blamed each other in front of the Judge. They saw the Judge but they didn't know that He is the Savior before He spoke the good news. Were they surprised? I believe so. They couldn't believe it, but it was true.

Didn't you notice that God didn't speak about the curses first? He gave them the hope of salvation before He told them about their consequences for disobedience. They learned the truth about the loving and forgiving God. The curses were not pleasant to live with, but they could live with them because of hope. Eve thought Cain was the One who would "bruise" Satan's head. Imagine, they were excited and hopeful, but to their surprise Cain wasn't the Promised One. Instead, he was a murderer. How painful they were. They lost Abel who was killed and Cain who ran away. But, God was very merciful to them by giving them the prophecy of the future that the Messiah—Jesus would come down to earth to fulfill the promise in Genesis 3:15. They didn't live to see Jesus yet, but they died in faith.

About four thousand years later there was another surprise to Israelites who had been looking forward to the Messiah for many years. Some of them knew the prophecies that told them that the time was coming soon for the Messiah to appear. But, unfortunately they had the wrong idea about what the Messiah should look like. They were surprised that the Holy One was born as a baby, not as a Man with the fullness of glory. Mary was surprised that she was chosen to bear the Messiah. Joseph was upset about Mary being pregnant even though he didn't have any sexual relationship with her. He would suspect that Mary might have gone with another man. Behold, an angel told him not to worry about her. She was gifted with a child through the Holy Spirit. Surprised! The poor shepherds out on the field were looking at the sky and talking about the Messiah. Surprised! The angel showed up, informing them of the priceless gift from God that was already happened in Bethlehem. A baby was born! The Savior was born. Amazing! They ran to the place where the baby was in a manger. Joseph and Mary were poor, not rich people! Surprised!

Three years later another surprise awaiting for the disciples who loved the Lord, but had the wrong idea of what Messiah should be and do. They dreamed of the restored kingdom breaking away from the Romans, but they were shocked that their Master was arrested, tortured, and died on Barabbas' cross. They learned slowly about the real Messiah. They were glad that He rose from the grave victoriously over the power of death. All of them died in faith, not seeing Jesus' coming back again as promised.

Let's speed forward two thousand years until today. He hasn't come back yet, but we have been surprised by what have been going on in this crazy, sick world. We are in the time that is far worse than the time of Noah and Sodom. We have witnessed events that have never happened before in our lifetime—great world wars, nuclear power, immorality, technologies, etc. But the best of all we have witnessed is the spread of the gospel to all over the world. That really encourages us in knowing that the Bible is true, not a fake. Jesus is coming soon! Surprised? Not really because we believe the Bible. But, we are surprised that we are the possible generation to see Jesus in person without tasting death. Who knows? There are more surprises awaiting us when we get to heaven that we might never experience in this world. God loves us so much to give us a wonderful surprise. "But as it is written in the Scriptures: 'No one has ever seen this, and no one has ever heard about it. No one has ever imagined what God has prepared for those who love him'" (1 Corinthians 2:8,9, NCV).

Thank Jesus Christ for the greatest gift for this

Christmas reminds us to celebrate Jesus as the priceless gift to us. Nothing we offer can compare with Him! Salvation is priceless so don't give up your hope in Jesus. He is here with us to comfort us through the Holy Spirit. Wouldn't you like to share your gifts to Jesus so we can expand the ministry to the Deaf? Let us think about how complete was Jesus' sacrifice for us. Let us completely sacrifice our lives to Him daily.

in my memory if I had met the Davidsons there. I was really had a great fellowship with the group so I faithfully attended this church when I was home from college. Finally, one Sabbath I met the family of the Davidsons at the church or at the Isslers' home for potluck fellowship. When I met Neil for the first time he really showed much interest in talking with me as a new young Deaf Adventist. He shared with me about the Bible and other spiritual things. Without my knowledge he was a former pastor to the Deaf who lost his job a year before. He had a lot of knowledge of the Bible, and I had noticed that he spent more time talking about the Bible more than other subjects. I was really impressed with him as a man of the Bible. As a very new Christian I knew little about the Bible even though I had completed several Bible study guides from the Voice of Prophecy.

We sometimes met Neil and Lillian when we visited the LA area from our Arizona home. But we moved to other states, we lost our contact with them until we met them at the camp meeting at Milo. Years later we started seeing them more and more at the camp meeting. We were kindly surprised that Neil and Lillian and their friends from Latvia attended my mother's memorial service in South Laguna. They showed their support for us. When I was the chairman of the board of directors of Adventist Deaf Ministries (now 3ADM) the board invited Neil to be a board of director. I was touched by his strong affirmation with a big smile on his face! Happily, he served for us until he no longer could function well due to his age. Sadly, in 2008 Neil lost Lillian because of cancer that really impacted him. However, he continued called us through video phone to share with me some interesting facts from the Bible, his memories of his time with Lillian and his lifetime journey with God. As he got older his health declined, but he continued to have strong faith in God. Then one day we missed him. No more videophone with him. He is sleeping now as he is awaiting the great day of the Lord. Looking back I wished we had spent more time with him in person to comfort and entertain him, but we will meet him and Lillian when Jesus returns to earth to destroy death that has been part of our lives.

Now, the two great pioneering Deaf pastors are resting in the graves—Elder Arthur Griffith and Neil Davidson. Many Deaf people's lives had been touched by their life of faith in God. When we were young we looked up to them for the knowledge of the Bible and their Christian example. They were our role models. Now, we are role models to the younger generations. Let us always set a good Christian example to those who are young and new in faith. The torches of truth have passed unto us, and one day we will give them to the younger generations of Deaf people to spread the Three Angels' Message.

"For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly desires, we should live soberly, righteously, and in godliness in this present world, as we await the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from all lawlessness and purify for Himself a special people, zealous of good works" (Titus 2:11-14, MEV).

keep our eyes on Jesus.

At the end of the conference, we ended up with over-ordered food. DYAC members helped to load the food in our rental van. Nicolette Romeo and Farrah Gooding-Santiago delivered it to the homeless shelter nearby. The shelter greatly appreciated it.

Many thanks to NAD, DMC, and 3ADM for their continuous support in our DYAC ministries.

Furthermore, DYAC works with Adventist youths to learn more about themselves and their gifts from God as Deaf Young Adults for Christ (DYAC) had their 11th annual conference in Hebron, Kentucky on October 12-15th, 2018. It had 19 adults and 7 children. The theme this year is “Called To Serve” based on the Bible verse Ephesians 2:10.

Before starting the conference, some of the DYAC members grabbed the chance to exercise with Farrah Gooding-Santiago as their “boot-camp instructor”. They have learned several tips of squeezing exercise into their busy schedules. And yes, we ended up feeling very sore but felt great!

On Friday and Saturday, Josiah Kelly, Farrah Gooding-Santiago, Amanda Colgan and Joshua Piccerillo gave presentations on keeping and testing our faith and about personal ministry to others. Several DYAC members also helped with devotions and worship service. They enjoyed the theme song, “Our God is an Awesome God.”

On Sunday, the group went to Creation Museum during their annual Deaf Day event. The museum supports the fact that God created the universe and the Bible’s account of six days creation. DYAC members shared their learning experiences at the end of the day which inspires us to they work together for our church. Our goal is to give young adults opportunities to practice their skills in service for God in support His plan for us. If you know someone who is between the ages of 18 – 38, please encourage them to contact DYAC at DYACDeaf@gmail.com and learn more about the wonderful promises God has shared with us.

matched exactly with what Elder Kelly was saying a few minutes ago, about Jesus our Savior being worth so much more than any riches in the world. Farrah did not plan this with Elder Paul. We knew then that God had accepted Elder Kelly's decision. Many people in the room started crying. Elder Kelly's daughter-in-law Monica Kelly confessed that she had been called to be baptized again, this time by a Sabbath-keeping pastor. So, we were surprised with three baptisms instead of one!

We also enjoyed a Lord's supper together on Friday evening. Our next autumn revival will be on October 24-27, 2019. Please join us.

Margie English

The DEAF church hosted its cozy autumn revival the last weekend of October this year. A total of 24 people worshiped together on Sabbath, with some arriving on Thursday or Friday. The Camp Blue Ridge retreat was in full color even though we had some rain through the weekend. Elder Paul Kelly spoke on the topic of our Christian character as he quoted passages from Doug Batchelor's book, Who Do You Think You Are?

We came to the weekend knowing that our dear brother Neill Bridges had decided to give his life to our Lord God. So, we were surprised when Elder Paul told us he wanted to be rebaptized, because he made the mistake of not talking with God to make his decision to be baptized in the first place. He said he made his decision by talking with his friends, and this bothered him for many years. When Elder Paul announced his decision, our hearts melted. Then Farrah Santiago came up and sang "Jesus is worth more than silver and gold." This song

DEAF's Annual Vegetarian Thanksgiving Dinner

Deaf Evangelistic Adventist Fellowship (DEAF) hosted its first annual vegetarian Thanksgiving Dinner at Burnt Mills Seventh-day Adventist Church in Silver Spring. Fifty-five individuals enjoyed the event. Let me explain the history of why DEAF is no longer worshipping at Silver Spring Seventh-day Adventist Church (SSSDA). Last April we were suddenly forced to leave SSSDA church for the room renovation, so we had to be relocated to the Burnt Mills SDA Church through the generosity of the church's members and the new pastor, Daniel Royo, who was assigned to here from Roanoke, VA area. Interestingly, Pastor Royo knows some sign language through Deaf members in Radford area. They let us use the fellowship hall for our Sabbath School and one of the Sabbath School rooms for our worship service. Fortunately, this room has Internet for live-streaming through ingenuity of Chris Emery who installed the Internet cable from the upstairs office to our new room through the windows. We have a wireless router that is connected with the Internet cable. It works wonderfully.

However, we were supposed to be there temporarily until the SSSDA's renovation is done, but for some reason the SSSDA's church board and its new pastor decided not to have us back to the church a few months later. That was shocking news to us because we had never expected of this to happen to us. For we had a fruitful relationship with the SSSDA for 50 years. Joan Hodge-Wilson was the first baptized member of this church through the effort of Maxine Davidson who was the member in the 1960's. The largest group of Deaf members the SSSDA church ever had was in the 1970's through the students' evangelistic effort at Gallaudet College (now University) in the late 1960's. The first pastor for this group was Elder Alfred Griffith who had just graduated from college, and he and his new wife moved on their honeymoon trip from the state of Washington. Then his father, Elder Arthur Griffith, pastored there in the late 1970's before he retired and moved to Arkansas. In 2006 under the leadership of Elder David M. Trexler the Deaf group became a company through the blessings of the SSSDA church and the Potomac Conference. The SSSDA Church promised to help us when needed.

When the renovation was done and the request of the board of the SSSDA church we had to remove our things (books, camp meeting supplies, white board, communion set, and office equipment) from our former room and its storage. Currently, most of DEAF's things are in the Trexlers' garage. When Pastor Royo and some members of the church was informed of the decision of the SSSDA's board immediately he consulted the church's board to invite us as a permanent new family in this church. The board immediately approved it. The rent agreement between DEAF and the Burnt Mills SDA Church (BMC) will be approved after the review by the conference. We are still a company, but we are part of the Burnt Mills SDA Church's family. Praise the Lord!

Looking back, we really saw the hands of the Lord helping us in this difficult situation. He knew what would happen to us while we knew nothing. He worked in a wonderful ways of solving our problems smoothly. Now, we can say that the Lord really loves and cares for us. Thanks to the wonderful family of BMC!

Esther Doss Is Honored

George Belser and David presents the plaque to Esther.

Esther Doss is departing from her position of Public Relations for 3ADM at the end of 2018. She has worked hard as the PR for 3ADM since 2006. However, she has done much in supporting the ministry to the Deaf long before the creation of 3ADM in 1998. The former Executive Director, Jim Hovey, and the former Chairperson Pastor David M. Trexler were discussing about the needs to have a hearing spoke person for 3ADM in the Adventist community. It was difficult to effectively communicate with the church's leaders and other members of the church about the work of 3ADM that can meet the needs of the Deaf without someone who is hearing who can call and write for us. Suddenly "Esther Doss" came in our thoughts who could fill in for us. At that time Esther was a member of the board, and she gladly accepted the position. We gained new

While a person from Olympia, WA was visiting his parents in Southern California he stopped by and inquired whether we have Deaf SDA group in Washington State. hearing donors through her efforts by visiting ASI Conventions, GC Sessions, and other Adventists' conferences. But more than just promoting 3ADM she has done a lot by educating them about the Deaf and the work for the Deaf that is unique in our church. She has encouraged them to look at 3ADM as the center of the Deaf ministry in the SDA Church.

Life has changed much for all of us, especially for Esther. When she accepted the position, she had no child but a few years later she was a blessed with a wonderful child that required much attention from her as she tried to have time to fulfill her duties for 3ADM. A few years ago the Deaf Ministries Committee (DMC) elected Esther to be the Coordinator of the NAD Deaf Ministries. Currently, she is spending a lot of time visiting many church leaders and conventions and educating them about the Deaf in our church. It has been taxing on her so she decided that she needed to give up her precious work for 3ADM. So, we believe it was time for Esther Doss to know how much we have appreciated her efforts for 3ADM with a plaque. The presentation of the plaque was given at the Deaf Ministry Committee at the new headquarters of NAD in Columbia, MD. Despite leaving 3ADM she promises that she will always encourage everyone whom she meets to support and contact 3ADM which is the only viable ministry to the Deaf in the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Thank you, Esther!

Friends of Neil attend the Celebration of Life at Chula Vista SDA Church.

Paul and LeeAnn Davidson hosted the Celebration of Life for Neil Davidson at Chula Vista SDA Church that was held on October 20. Neil and Lillian were the members of this church for many years. I was honored to give a short sermon for this service. The service lasted about an hour and half given by several people who gave testimonies and slides of his life. It was a moving experience.

I was very impressed with the expression of love by the people who attended the service. And I was surprised to see many of Neil and Lillian’s friends who came to pay their last respect for him. Some Deaf visitors came from Arizona and Missouri. Harry and Joyce Sturm, Ambrose Purifory, Helen Thomas and Geraldine Pacheco are from Arizona; Bruce and Susan Buzzell from Missouri; and us from Maryland. We had several Deaf members from the Los Angeles, Riverside and San Diego areas.

I pray that the small Deaf group will grow with the good support from the church in the future. We look forward to the day when we will meet our sleeping friends who will be awakened from their long and short nap on the glorious day of the Lord.

David M. Trexler

Jesus’ sympathy, social kindness and concern for their best good . . . made men and women long to be worthy of His confidence. Upon their thirsty hearts His words fell with blessed, life-given power. Now their impulses were awakened, and though they might be an outcast of society, there opened the possibility of a new life.

This same Jesus is calling you to His side today. Whatever your past may have been, regardless of your weakness . . . He wants to forgive your past, transform your weakness by His grace, through obedience to His Written Word, the Holy Scriptures.

Christ neglects no one. Wherever there are hearts open to receive the truth, Christ is ready to instruct them. (The above is from the book: Ministry of Healing by Ellen G. White).

Proverbs 3:5, 6, MEV: “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will direct your paths.”

Psalm 40:4, MEV: “Blessed is the man who places trust in the Lord,.”

1 Peter 5:7, NCV: “Give all your worries to him, because he cares about you.”

“Tis so sweet to trust in Jesus, Just take him at his word; Just to rest upon his promise, Just to know, ‘Thus saith the Lord.’” (SDA Hymnal)

“Trust and obey, for there is no other way to be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey.” (SDA Hymnal)

Thank you, Jesus that we can trust You. We can trust that You want what is best for us.

“Dear friend, I know that your spiritual life is going well. I pray that you also may enjoy good health. And I pray that everything else may go well with you.” (3 John 1:2, NlrV).
