Three Angels Deaf Ministries Celebrates 20 Years!

April 1 was a milestone in our ministry. Three Angels Deaf Ministries was officially organized on April 1, 1998. We have often laughed about the date, as it was on April Fool's Day. But we know that our ministry is no joke, but rather a God-ordained organization to work among the Deaf in North America.

An ad hoc committee of mostly Deaf members formed an organization, created by-laws, and a Board of Directors. This organization was at that time named Adventist Deaf Ministries and opened its office in Lincoln, Nebraska. Thompson U. Kay was asked to be our first director.

Some thought that this ministry would soon die. But instead, twenty years later we are still here. And the work among the Deaf continues to grow. With only one full-time pastor for the Deaf in all of North America, this ministry has become very important to continue the spread of the Good News and to help our Deaf members to remain faithful.

In the next few newsletters, we will share some of our stories and pictures from over the years. We will also share about other Deaf work that has been done in various places in North America as well. We will do our best to tell about some little-known persons who dedicated their lives to the Deaf since the late 1800's.

An anniversary is a good time to remember how God led Deaf ministry through times of frustrations, joy, and success. How important to remember how God has led us in the past to help us remain faithful to His service now and in the future! We thank you for your generous and faithful support over the years. Without you this ministry would not exist.

The first known ministry for Deaf people within the Adventist Church was recorded by Ellen G. White herself. She attended a camp meeting in Maine and noticed a group of Deaf people with a Deaf man as the leader. Someone wrote what the speaker said while the Deaf man read and signed the message to the group.

Even from the start of the Adventist Church, God did not forget the Deaf. During this time, the Deaf faced discrimination, neglect, misunderstandings, and marginalization in the hearing

Speaker's Dialogue: Sanctification is the Result of Lifelong Obedience

“Those who claim to belong to him must live just as Jesus did” (1 John 2:6, Nlrv).

John was a teacher of holiness, and in his letters to the church he gave perfect rules for the behavior of Christians. He wrote, “He [Jesus] is pure. All who hope to be like him make themselves pure” (1 John 3:3, Nlrv)... He taught that the Christian must be pure in heart and life. He should never be satisfied to only say he is a Christian. As God is holy in His sphere, so fallen man, through faith in Christ, is to be holy in his sphere....

The sanctification [to make holy or to make pure from sin] of the church is God's goal in all His works with His people. He has chosen them from eternity so that they might be holy. He gave His Son to die for them so that they might be sanctified through obedience to the truth. They must give up all the littleness of self. God requires a personal work, a personal surrender from them. God can be honored by people who say they believe in Him as long as they are following His character and be controlled by His Spirit. Then, they may show what divine grace has done for them as witnesses for the Savior.

True sanctification comes through the principle of love working in hearts. “God is love. Those who live in love live in God, and God lives in them” (1 John 4:16, NCV). A person will show practical godliness when Christ lives in his life. The character will be purified, elevated, ennobled, and glorified. Pure doctrine [teachings] will blend with works of righteousness and heavenly laws will mixed with holy actions....

It is the fragrance of our love for our fellow men that proves our love for God. It is patience in service that brings rest to a person. The humble, careful, faithful work satisfy the needs of Israel. God supports and strengthens the person who is willing to follow in Christ's way.

[Sanctification] does not come through a happy feeling, but is the result of constantly dying to sin, and constantly living for Christ. Wrongs cannot be made right nor reformations work in the character by weak and once a while efforts. It is only by long, persevering [continuing] effort, sore discipline, and stern conflict, that we shall overcome. We do not know how strong our conflict will be the next day. So long as Satan reigns, we shall have self to subdue, besetting sins to overcome; so long as life shall last, there will be no stopping place, no point which we can reach and say, I have fully attained. Sanctification is the result of lifelong obedience.—Adapted from Reflecting Christ, page 81, Ellen G. White.

Video Shoot for New Promo Video

It is time for a new video on why Deaf ministry is a vital part of the Gospel work. In February, we were blessed by several members of the Silver Spring, Maryland DEAF Church who volunteered to go to a studio to go on camera. They shared why 3ADM is an important part of God's work and also how 3ADM has blessed them. We were very interested to see their different reasons. We noticed that none of their comments were alike. We realized how varied our work has been.

Also, we appreciate the Silver Spring DEAF Church who was willing to allow a camera man to come during Sabbath school and worship services to show Deaf people in worship together and to show the live streaming program.

We hope to have this video completed in the next few weeks. Look for our announcement in the near future!

In the late 1970's the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists asked Christian Record Services (CRS) to consider serving the Deaf. CRS was named Christian Record Braille Foundation at the time and was only serving the blind. The CRS board approved the idea of including the Deaf in their work. The new department for the Deaf was added in 1980 with Thompson U. Kay as the director and Alice Jean Nelson as the secretary. For the first time in the Adventist Church's history, there was a formal Deaf ministry.

So what caused the General Conference to push for Deaf ministry? Arthur W. Griffith was a full-time Deaf pastor in the Washington D.C. area from 1975 to 1980. He visited a General Conference leader many times. This led the General Conference to form a Taskforce committee for the Deaf. It was this committee that contacted CRS about Deaf ministry. Also, Arthur recommended Thompson U. Kay to lead the Deaf ministry in CRS.

At about the same time a self-supporting ministry to the Deaf was being established in Arkansas by Tom Fromm, a Deaf man from Oakland, CA. It was called Christian Deaf Center (CDC). During the 1978 Milo Deaf camp meeting in Oregon, Tom made a proposal of buying land in Arkansas for the purpose of establishing a Deaf Adventist school. The majority of the Deaf who attended the meeting showed their approval.

CDC was an educational and training center for the Deaf. It followed the work/study program based on Ellen White's "blueprint." This meant that the students would work to help pay for the cost of their studies.

Tom Fromm was the first president and Elder Clarence Kohler was the secretary. Elder Kohler was a pastor for hearing churches for many years. But he was also a CODA. He was involved with Deaf ministry in California before Elder Alfred Griffith, one of Arthur Griffith's son, took his place in the late 1970's.

Soon, Don Griffith, also a son of Arthur Griffith, became the general manager of the school. Unfortunately, soon after in 1980, a tragic automobile accident with a drunk driver killed Tom and Don's wife, Kathy.

Elder Arthur Griffith took an early retirement from the conference work in the D.C. area to move to Arkansas. He replaced Tom as president of the school.

CDC had financial difficulties and was unable to stay open. The school existed from late 1979 to 1986 when it closed after merging with CRS.

Don joined the CRS Deaf Ministry team to be with Thompson and Alice Jean. Then CRS hired Max Gallimore (Deaf) as editor of the first Deaf missionary magazine In This Sign. The name was later changed to Deaf-Light. But, Max left CRS about a year later. Then in 1991, Don decided to take another job. David Trexler, a teacher at the North Dakota School for the Deaf, was hired to take Don's place as editor.

From 1980 to 1997 the Deaf Department provided inspirational materials and ministries—the New Dawn newsletter; Deaf-Light; Story of Redemption, Easy Reading; Steps to Christ, Easy Reading; the Sabbath School quarterly in easy reading English; camps for Deaf kids; a Bible correspondence school; video library; Deaf booth ministry; van ministry done by Elder Arthur Griffith; and evangelistic meetings done by David Trexler.

Starting in 1985, CRS faced difficulties with debts. They had to cut back some services to the Blind and the Deaf. The situation worsened in the following years, causing the CRS Board of Trustees to make a painful decision to close the ministry for the Deaf. As a result, Thompson U. Kay, the director of the department for the Deaf for 18 years; and David Trexler, the associate director and editor, became unemployed. The church's only ministry to the Deaf had ceased to exist.

To be continued in the next newsletter.

3ADM Board Members Travel to India

Two of our board members recently traveled to India to assist with training and spending time with the children at the SDA School for the Speech and Hearing in Kollegal, India. Marvin Budd (Michigan) volunteers with Gospel Outreach by helping coordinate the Deaf pastors in India. Chuck McGehee (Deaf from Oregon) was invited to share presentations to the Deaf. Pastor Ambrose, the Director of Special Needs Ministries for the Southern Asian Division was also at the school.

They were a part of the Week of Prayer held February 20-25. The morning and evening sessions started with songs signed by the students and staff. Chuck was the guest speaker. He told stories of faith and hope from the Bible and personal experiences for the theme "Jesus' Amazing Promise to His Friends." The messages were presented with beautiful pictures and Bible texts. Then each session ended with prayer bands where the students, staff and the guests placed special prayer requests and then prayed.

On Sabbath, they met at nearby beautiful and peaceful Calvary Camp. The students presented Bible story skits, choreography to songs and feature talks. Then the Week of Prayer ended with a powerful sermon on the promise of Jesus to His friends on His soon coming.

Also, during the week, over 25 former students of the school participated in a Bible Story Telling Workshop given by Elder Marvin Budd. The youth asked lots of questions on Bible topics and issues that they face daily. These meetings were very useful and productive for the youth.

During the week, on the 23rd, the school had a graduation. Both Marvin and Chuck participated in the graduation ceremony.

Pastor Ambrose gave an inspiring message to the graduates who were also presented with their diplomas and awards. The teachers sang a special song going with the theme of the graduation "Pressing Higher and Onward by Faith."

We praise God for His wonderful leading in the lives of these precious children and we wish them well as they go into the world to begin their lives.

Marvin Budd teaches a workshop on Bible Story Telling to help the Deaf better share the Gospel message in India.

Chuck McGehee shares stories that show God's promises to us. Many students and former students pay close attention to his storytelling.

Deaf students graduate from the SDA School for the Speech and Hearing in Kollegal, India. Both Marvin Budd and Chuck McGehee had the privilege of being a part of the graduation program.

Arkansas Deaf Weekend

David and Francisca Trexler flew to Little Rock, Arkansas to minister to the Deaf for the weekend of April 7. As soon as they got off the airplane and got a quick bite for lunch, they went to visit a member's husband who was in the hospital. Then they drove to see another member who has been homebound due to illness. They also shared the Lord's Supper together. After a long day, they finally arrived in Mountain View, Arkansas for a weekend of Deaf ministry.

On Friday afternoon, several Deaf people met for a meet-and-greet supper. Some Deaf people traveled a long ways to be there. One couple, Claude and Joan Wilson were traveling to Virginia after leaving their winter home in south Texas. Another couple, Gordon and Jane Meis surprised everyone by coming all the way from the Chattanooga, Tennessee area. 3ADM Board of Directors' Chairperson Bruce Buzzell and his wife Susan drove down from St. Louis, Missouri for the time of spiritual refreshment among friends.

On Sabbath morning, Francisca Trexler taught an excellent Sabbath School class. Then David Trexler spoke to both the hearing and Deaf in the sanctuary on "Fiery Trials" and encouraged everyone to stand firm for God, despite the challenges and difficulties that are thrown at us in order to honor God.

The Deaf stayed all through the afternoon into the evening with Bible study and fellowship. The Deaf members and guests in Arkansas were thrilled to have such a wonderful group meet with them and were refreshed with a spiritual feast.

Farewell Party for Ingrams

The Ingrams received a fun farewell party at DEAF in Silver Spring, MD on February 10. Many church friends, co-workers, and friends were there to wish them well. Sonny recently retired and the couple has moved to Florida to be near Cathy's mother who is in her 90's. They will be missed greatly at DEAF as they both have been heavily involved with the Deaf group.

Ten Days of Prayer

Each year in January, the General Conference of the SDA Church encourages churches to focus on prayer and Bible study for ten days. They have a special focus every year. This year, the focus was on Jesus our High Priest.

Sheelah Kimbrough, a Deaf member in Maryland, believed that Deaf Adventists all across North America should be a part of this time of focused prayer. She was encouraged to put together a program and experiment to see how it would work.

She discussed her ideas with the DEAF Church in Silver Spring, Maryland who were quite interested. 3ADM was also happy to work with her by providing resources and live streaming.

So, during the world-wide Ten Days of Prayer on January 10-20, a unique program for the Deaf in ASL was live streamed from the Silver Spring MD. In this way, others in distant places could participate if they wanted to. The experiment seemed to have worked well. Next year, this will be done again and will be more advertised so more can join in.

Jessica McGowan shared with us a report of how the live streamed program worked for their group in Massachusetts. She said:

"Members (14) of our local DEAF group got together at our house to watch David Trexler speak for the worship service. We reviewed the parts of the High Priest's garments. Even Amy and Thomas (two children) did worksheets and coloring pages on the High Priest's clothes. After worship we had a nice meal of soup and sandwiches and we fellowshiped and talked a long time.

"Sabbath was a real blessing to all of us. [One couple] said they really like that our church studies deeply into the Bible and not just [on the} surface. [Another] said she was happy she could watch it on our Surface Pro so she could be included.

"We have decided that now every other month we will get together for a home church worship like we did on Sabbath. This is the seed of what I hope grows into a potential DEAF church in the northeast.

"Thank you for inviting us to be part of the Ten Days of Worship. Next year we hope to plan to be even more involved in the daily prayers."

We praise God that this Ten Days of Prayer has strengthened the DEAF group in Massachusetts. God will indeed bless when we unite in Him.

Also, as a note, the Deaf group at the Tabernacle Church in Portland, Oregon have been doing the Ten Days of Prayer on their own for a few years, but they meet in person for ten Sabbaths in a row. They say that it is a blessing to study and pray together.

Deaf Man Leads Rapidly Growing Ministry in Africa

Burundi is a small country in Africa. In Burundi, children born with a disability or deafness are hidden from the neighbors.

In 1990, Janvier Nkurikiye was born to a family of eight children, six boys and two girls. He was the only deaf child. Unlike other families, his family treated him well and he went to school in Bujumbura where he lived.

While in Kenya in 2014, Janvier visited with an Adventist who led him to Adventist meetings for the Deaf in Mombasa. He went with interest to see what was going on and was eager to meet Deaf people.

He enjoyed the gathering very much. He was baptized by Pastor Paul Muasya, the main speaker of the meetings. Besides making new Deaf friends, he also experienced salvation.

He came back to Burundi in 2015 with his new faith. He did not expect to find challenges. First of all, the country had much political tension that year. But he also found that not a single Adventist Church had any sign language. He was the only known Deaf Adventist person in all of Burundi.

The political problems improved, but he had a hard time finding a church to worship in because many churches in the capital city did not want a Deaf ministry. Some were afraid that Deaf people would be attracted to their church and bring with them some related problems.

Finally, Deaf ministry was started in Kamenge with the help of a church leader from Uganda who is involved in Special Needs for the country. The first church with sign language was born with only Janvier and Ntihakose Frederick, a non-Adventist friend and sign language interpreter.

Less than three years have gone by. Now there are five churches in Burundi with sign language. Through Janvier's work, more than 100 souls have been baptized! Also, his friend Ntihakose was baptized after only four months of interpreting.

Someone asked Ntihakose how he feels about how he became an Adventist and his part in harvesting souls. Smiling Ntihakose Frederick said: "Those who despise the Deaf do not know that these are people. [We need to be sensitive] and tell them they belong to the human race and that they can change the world too. Personally, I also have a special concern how I can be involved to bring as many people as possible to Christ and the Seventh day Adventist message."

Janvier Nkurikiye is a young Deaf man who is on fire and is dedicated to sharing Jesus and Bible truth in Burundi, a small country in Africa.

One of the best signs of how Janvier's ministry to the Deaf is quickly growing is the Deaf camp meeting. In August, 2017, the first Deaf camp meeting was held in Bujumbura, Burundi with more than 120 deaf people attending.

"It really helped me very much" Janvier said. "And we invited even more non-Adventist Deaf people. I also enjoyed the fact they knew for the first time about the Sabbath."

He is mentoring some people who can help him spread the news to other regions. And his church has elected Janvier and another Deaf man as deacons.

Asked if he also evangelizes to the hearing, he said: "Yes, I do and I know I get the strength from the Holy Spirit who convicts hearts. And I am calling upon those who have special needs that they should not be limited by stigma. . . Their disabilities should not be a barrier."

Now Janvier is getting overwhelming invitations from churches around the country. We still need many more like him who can feel that holy passion and zeal to see hearts yield to Jesus.
