Testimonies, vol. I , page 186-187

God will prove His people. Jesus bears patiently with them, and does not spew them out of His mouth in a moment. Said the angel: "God is weighing His people."

Testimonies, vol. I , page 186-187

If the message had been of as short duration as many of us supposed, there would have been no time for them to develop character. Many moved from feeling, not from principle and faith, and this solemn, fearful message stirred them.

Testimonies, vol. I , page 186-187

It wrought upon their feelings, and excited their fears, but did not accomplish the work which God designed that it should. God reads the heart.

Testimonies, vol. I , page 186-187

Lest His people should be deceived in regard to themselves, He gives them time for the excitement to wear off, and then proves them to see if they will obey the counsel of the True Witness.
